

64-13-34 Safety of offenders.

In case of disaster or acts of God that threaten the safety of inmates or the security of a secure correctional facility, inmates may be moved to a suitable place of security. Inmates shall be returned to a correctional facility as soon as it is practicable.

Amended by Chapter 116, 1987 General Session